

UNIVERSITY of TASMANIA

G R A D U A T I O N

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge the Palawa/Pakana people of lutruwita (Tasmania) and the Gadigal people of Sydney, the traditional owners and custodians of the land upon which we live and work. We pay respects to Elders past and present as the knowledge holders and sharers. We honour their strong culture and knowledge as vital to the self-determination, wellbeing and strength of their communities. We stand for a future that profoundly respects and acknowledges Aboriginal perspectives, culture, language and history.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

Most Australian universities have a ceremonial mace that symbolises the university's ethos. Before becoming ceremonial, maces were a real weapon, carried into battle by medieval knights and war-like bishops. Now, the mace is purely symbolic, and represents authority.

When the University of Tasmania was inaugurated in 1890, the symbol of authority used was a simple black rod. But in 1982, the University commissioned local sculptor Peter Taylor to design and coordinate the creation of a mace, with contributions from a number of Tasmanian artisans.

The head is made of ceramic and bronze, with 12 ceramic 'vanes' alternately enamelled in the University colours of red and blue. Gilding is applied to the outer edges of each of the vanes and is topped by a bronze crown. Four of the 12 ceramic vanes extend through the crown, and form a visual focus for the paws of four bronze thylacines (Tasmanian tigers) around the crown.

UNIVERSITY MEDAL AND ARMS

The University Medal is the highest academic award given to undergraduate students.

Medals are awarded to students who have a consistent record of exceptional academic achievement at all levels of a bachelor's degree program, and qualify for a bachelor's degree with first class honours. Up to thirteen medals can be awarded annually.

The medal incorporates the University Arms. Originally, the University used the seal of the Tasmanian Council of Education. In 1937, a competition was held for the design of a coat of arms from University graduates. A design by Mr Egbert Holder Harry, a graduate and Launceston resident, was declared the winner.

THE BLACK ROD

In 2014, a black rod was reintroduced as a symbol of authority at ceremonial occasions.

The use of a black rod dates back to the 14th century in Britain, where an Usher of the Black Rod served the monarch in the British House of Lords. The Black Rod was used to discipline anyone who offended the Crown.

The University's Black Rod is made from Hydrowood Blackheart Sassafras. Hydrowood is sustainably recovered timber from the bed of Lake Pieman, which was flooded in the 1970s. It is now highly valued by furniture designers and woodworkers, and is also used in high-end residential and commercial construction.

The Centre for Sustainable Architecture with Wood, an extension of the University of Tasmania's School of Architecture and Design, collaborates with the State Government and Sustainable Forest Management on the Hydrowood project. The Centre's role is to provide timber producers with recovered logs that can be economically and efficiently converted into usable products.

The University's Black Rod is designed by award-winning designer and former Program Director of Furniture Design, Simon Ancher.

SYDNEY

5 MAY 2025

WELCOME FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Congratulations on becoming one of our newest graduates.

I am honoured to share this special occasion with you, and your family and friends.

University is all about learning new skills and knowledge and discovering what these might offer the world. I hope that learning from a Tasmanian perspective has given you a distinctive and valuable experience that you find helpful in the years ahead.

Equally important, university is also about being part of a community and we are very grateful that you have been a part of ours. Now that you are graduating, I hope that you will stay connected through our much-valued alumni community, which includes over 160,000 University of Tasmania graduates living and working across the globe.

Wherever you choose to live and whatever you choose to do, I wish you the very best and express my admiration for your significant achievement.

Alison Watkins
Chancellor

A MESSAGE FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

Congratulations!

We hope the education and experiences you have had at the University of Tasmania have made a real difference for you.

We hope it has nurtured a fascination with your area of study and that you feel ready to contribute to our society's many debates and discussions. Likewise, we hope it has helped you acquire skills and knowledge that will benefit you, whether at work, in your community or in your family.

We also hope it has prepared you to make a positive contribution to the world. For those in Tasmania, this includes helping to create Tasmania's future. Tasmania is a place with many wonderful opportunities. Like everywhere else, it also has plenty of challenges that need skilled and committed people working to overcome them.

Whether you are helping in your local community or contributing to national or international efforts, everyone's role in making our world a better place is valued greatly.

Today we celebrate the next generation going out, ready to make the difference that the world needs.

We hope this is a happy day for you and wish you well.

Professor Rufus Black
Vice-Chancellor

KEY CEREMONIAL MOMENTS

Our graduation ceremony includes several key moments, each adding meaning and tradition to the event. These moments are described in further detail below.

OCCASIONAL ADDRESS

Delivered by a distinguished alumnus, this address offers valuable insights and career advice based on their experiences since graduating from the University of Tasmania.

ALUMNI PIN PRESENTATION

The Alumni Pin symbolises the lasting connection with the University. It is presented by a respected alumnus who values the University's role in transforming lives through education and friendship.

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS

Delivered by a graduating student chosen for their academic achievements and ability to inspire. This speech reflects on their journey and celebrates the graduating class's accomplishments.

HONORARY DEGREE

Awarded to individuals who have made significant contributions to their field or society, the Honorary Degree recognises their achievements and impact. Recipients are celebrated for their excellence and serve as an inspiration to the University community.

ALUMNI AWARD

These awards honor University of Tasmania alumni who have demonstrated outstanding accomplishments and dedication in their professional or personal lives. It highlights their achievements and the positive influence they have had on their professional, local, and global communities.

WELCOME TO YOUR UNIVERSITY ALUMNI COMMUNITY

Congratulations on completing your studies successfully and graduating today.

As a graduate of the University of Tasmania, you are joining a vibrant global community of more than 150,000 alumni that live and work across approximately 110 countries.

Through your alumni community you will experience the special bond that forms between people who have studied at the same University and you may be surprised how this connection will influence people's desire to help you and see you succeed.

Wherever you are in the world, there is probably another University of Tasmania graduate there who can help you establish connections, build networks, get introductions, make friends, or even find a home. And if you need help finding these fellow graduates, our Alumni Office can give you a hand.

Through the University you have access to a wide range of events and opportunities to extend your network.

The University also offers a number of lifelong learning, career enhancement and student mentoring opportunities.

ALUMNI BENEFITS

As a new member of the University's enormous alumni community of over 161,000 people, you can access alumni benefits and get career-building advice from other more experienced alumni at Career Conversations. Don't forget that there are alumni across the globe and that you can ask the Alumni Office to connect you with friendly alumni anywhere in the world if you travel for work or pleasure.

RECOGNISE THE EXCEPTIONAL

The Alumni Awards program recognise the outstanding achievements of alumni making a significant contribution to their communities and achieving excellence in their industry.

GRADUATE OUTCOMES SURVEY (GOS)

As a University graduate, you will receive an invitation by email to complete the GOS in 4-6 months' time.

The GOS is administered by the Social Research Centre on behalf of the Department of Education and Training. Graduates from Universities across Australia participate.

This is your opportunity to provide feedback on your experiences at the University of Tasmania and tell us what you have been up to since leaving the University, e.g. Are you working? If so, where and in what industry? Did you go on to further study?

Your survey response will be greatly appreciated.

SHARE YOUR GRADUATION MOMENTS

Graduation is a celebration of your success at university and we encourage you to share celebration messages and photos of your smiles, gowns, families and friends on the University's Alumni Facebook page at facebook.com/utasalumni.

STAY CONNECTED

After graduation, you can continue to use your University email account for 12 months. During that time, we recommend that you save any important information you'll need in the future before you lose access to your account. To ensure you stay connected with us beyond 12 months after your graduation, please update your details to a personal email address: Update your contact details by clicking here.

ACADEMIC AND CEREMONIAL DRESS

On graduation day, special academic dress is worn for the ceremony. Gowns and hoods of different shapes indicate the degrees of bachelor's, master's and doctorates, and the colour of each hood represents the discipline of study. The University's academic dress is based on those of the University of Oxford and the University of Cambridge. The Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor and Members of the University Council wear ceremonial regalia.

A HISTORY OF GRADUATIONS

Graduation ceremonies go back a long way – some parts of modern ceremonies date back to the 12th century. When the Chancellor confers degrees to graduands, their words are a translation of the Latin form used in the Middle Ages.

In those times, the Chancellor's authority came from the church, which had a monopoly on education, partly because clerics were almost the only people who could read and write. As a result, the only person who could license a teacher was the bishop of a diocese, a task he could deputise to his chief secretary or chancellor. But as learning spread and teachers needed to work outside of a single diocese, the Chancellor's authority had to come from the Pope.

This changed at the Reformation, when the Crown assumed all the rights that had previously been the Pope's in England. As a result, all subsequent universities in England have been created by Royal Charter – and chancellors now wear robes similar to those of the Lord Chancellor of England, rather than the ecclesiastical robes of the Middle Ages.

In the 12th century, academic staff were called 'masters' or MAs. They hired their own lecture rooms and charged their own fees, and formed guilds or unions, which is what 'universitas' originally meant. As they insisted that they alone should determine who could be teachers, they found themselves in conflict with the Chancellor.

In the 13th century, the Pope decreed that chancellors were obliged to confer degrees on all those nominated by the masters. This is why the Dean, as spokesperson for the academic staff, reads out the names of those who are to receive degrees, and why the masters watch to see that the Chancellor or their deputy does their job.

The word 'degree' comes from the Latin gradus, which means 'a step', which is also where we get 'graduand'. When students are admitted to a bachelor's degree they move one step up, and when they are admitted to a master's degree they climb again to become part of the masters guild, or universitas.

The public is also an important participant in the graduation ceremony, as the proceedings need to be seen and heard by valid witnesses. The public hears the words of the Dean and the Chancellor and sees the new graduates dressed in their respective gowns or robes.
