

2026 Early Acceptance Scholarship

Terms and Conditions

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. The 2026 Early Acceptance Scholarship may be offered to international students who meet the below eligibility criteria and are commencing their studies in an eligible course in Semester one or Summer intakes 2026.
 - 1.1. This scholarship provides a 15% reduction on registered tuition fees for the full duration of eligible courses for a maximum of 4 years.
 - 1.2. The scholarship will be given in the form of a 15% annual tuition fee scholarship applied to tuition fees at the start of each study period provided the recipient is enrolled post census date in an eligible course and is studying onshore in Australia.
 - 1.3. Recipients of the Tasmanian International Scholarship (25%) are also eligible for the Early Acceptance Scholarship but at a reduced rate of 10%. This means that the maximum scholarship package that can be awarded is a total of a 35% reduction on registered tuition fees for the full duration of the course.

ELIGIBILITY OF APPLICANTS

2. To be eligible, applicants must meet all the following criteria:
 - 2.1. be classified as an International Student as defined under the application rules of the University of Tasmania;

 - 2.3.2. All postgraduate coursework programs (excluding Master of Psychology (Clinical), Master of Physiotherapy, Master of Speech Pathology, Master of Occupational Therapy, and fully on-line programs).
 - 2.4. accept their offer, meet all conditions and paid their deposit by the date specified on their offer.
 - 2.5. be enrolled full-time, (a minimum 37.5 credit points for each study period is considered full-time);
 - 2.6. not be a student enrolling in a course at the University's International Pathway College;
 - 2.7. not be a student from a Transnational Education (TNE) partner affiliated with the University of Tasmania
 - 2.8. not commencing at the University of Tasmania through an articulation agreement with a partner institution (e.g. 2 + 2 degree programs); and

- 2.9. The scholarship recipient may not defer the commencement of their Eligible Course beyond 2026;
- 2.10. Scholarship recipients who have an approved Leave of Absence during their study will have their scholarships suspended until they return at the end of their approved break (up to a maximum of 12 months); and
- 2.11. The scholarship recipient must not be in receipt of any other University of Tasmania scholarship or any external sponsorship with the exception of the Tasmanian International Scholarship (25%) whereby the Early Acceptance Scholarship will be offered at the reduced rate of 10% instead of 15%.

ALLOCATION OF SCHOLARSHIP

- 3. Applicants will be notified whether they have been awarded the scholarship in their Letter of Offer.

USE OF IMAGE

- 4. Any photographs and/or videos, taken by the University, of 2026 Early Acceptance Scholarship recipients may be used in publicity material to promote the University and its scholarship program. By agreeing to these terms and conditions, the scholarship recipient agrees to the use of photos and videos, and agrees that the University may reproduce, and/ or publish their image, their name and story in relation to the scholarship without compensation.
 - 4.1. Personal information about students is managed in accordance with the University Privacy Statements and Privacy Policy: <https://www.utas.edu.au/privacy>.
